WHOSE LAND | 90 MIN

Whose Land? Monday 14 August 6.30pm for 6.45pm Q&A after the film.

Joseph Goebbels, who was Hitler's architect in the campaign to brand the Jewish people as a 'sub-human' race in Nazi Germany, was quoted as saying: "If a lie is repeated often enough, then the people will believe it." A similar tactic is being used today in the propaganda war waged against the State of Israel, with the aim of de-legitimising the existence of the Jewish State and her domicile in her ancient homeland. At the heart of the propaganda war is the rewriting of history and the revision and deliberate misrepresentation of International Law.

In the two-part documentary Whose Land? Richard Kemp, together with a group of historians and highly qualified international lawyers, examine the conflicting claims of the Palestinians and the Israelis through the eyes of verifiable history and international law.

Part 1 of the documentary Whose Land? - entitled Foundations - focuses on the Balfour Declaration, the San Remo Resolution of 1920 and its unanimous endorsement by the League of Nations. The resulting British Mandate enshrined in the historic and cultural connection of the Jewish people to the land that was then known as Palestine, and their right to reconstitute what had been their National Home. This right is valid in International Law to this day. The film is presented by Colonel Richard Kemp CBE, and directed and produced by multi award-winning filmmaker Hugh Kitson.

Please join us for what will most definitely be a very informative and interesting evening with the worldwide premiere screening of the film followed by a Q&A session with Hugh Kitson.

Cost: $15 - general admission

$10 - student concession

WIND RIVER | M | 111 MIN

Oscar®-nominated screenwriter Taylor Sheridan makes his directorial debut with the final film in his trilogy of screenplays on the American frontier (including Sicario & Hell or High Water). Academy Award®-nominee, Jeremy Renner is Cory Lambert, a local game tracker who stumbles upon the body of a murdered teenage girl, frozen in the desolate wilderness of the Wind River Indian Reservation. Still trying to come to terms with the death of his own teenage daughter, Cory is brutally forced to confront his own past. When rookie FBI agent Jane Banner (Elizabeth Olsen) is assigned to the case, she enlists Cory's help to navigate the unfamiliar terrain and unforgiving conditions as the two venture deep into a world ravaged by violence and the elements. WIND RIVER is a stark look at life on the edge of an imposing wilderness, where the rule of law is eclipsed by the laws of nature.
